The Resurrection | John 20:1-18 | Dn. Kenny

Introduction of Candidate for election to the Session Annual Congregational Meeting 27 April 2025 Election of Elder Moriah-English Congregation

Kenny Khoo Ming Sang

I came to faith when I was 14 years old, after having considered Buddhism and other faith that emphasised self-cultivation and merits. However, my spiritual eyes were opened when I turned to the book of John, thanks to a RM10 Good News Bible that an evangelist came a knocking with. To this date, I have no idea where this person hailed from.

Mr. and Mrs. Ng Chook Meng, brought me to Sembawang BP Church, having first opened up their home to me in 1984, and showing me what true Christian generosity and love is. The rest, as they say is history, as I have been worshipping in Sembawang, and now in Moriah for more 36 years.

I am convinced that Moriah is where God has called me to be; as a member of His community of people and a vessel in His kingdom. I am only grateful that I have been given the privilege to serve. I believe that God's grand plans will be fulfilled, and I will be very sorry not to be a part of it.

I believe that God is sovereign; and He has been gently refining me to become a submitted and humble servant of His. I pray and seek to serve within the collective wisdom of God's people in Moriah for the benefit of His people, and the honor of His name.

Humbly,
Kenny Khoo
